Numb. 4566

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 26. to Thursday July 28. 1709.

Berne, July 20. N. S.

LEtters from Lions say, that a Battalion of Courten had been again attacked by the Inhabitants of the Vivarez, and that the Numbers of the Malecontents encreaſe every Day. They are now divided into two Bodies, but have ſo poſted themſelves that they can eaſily join whenever they ſee occaſion. They write from Beſançon, that ſeveral Perſons had been arreſted there, on Suſpicion of being concerned in the Deſign of betraying that Place, and that two Regiments of Dragoons and three Battalions were ſent into the City for its better Security. Theſe Letters add, that the Miſeries of the People in Burgundy were ſo great, that they were apprehenſive of an Inſurrection in that Country. Advices from Savoy of the eighteenth Inſtant ſay, the greater part of his Royal Highneſs's Army was advanced as far as Termignon near Lanebourg. The Count de Medavi is intrenched at St. John, to prevent the Count de Taun from penetrating into the Maurienne. General Rhebinder hath poſſeſſed himſelf of Mount Genevre with ten thouſand Men, and the Duke of Berwick is encamped on the other ſide of that Mountain, in order to cover Briançon. Letters from Turin of the thirteenth Inſtant ſay, that his Royal Highneſs was preparing to ſet out for Orbaſſan, and that his Forces were ſo far advanced towards the Frontiers, that they ſhortly expected an account of ſome conſiderable Action.

Frankfort, July 24. N. S. The Grand Maſter of the Teutonick Order returned hither Yeſterday from Darmſtadt. He has received the Compliments of the Magiſtracy of this City, upon the occaſion of his being reſcued out of the Hands of the French Party. The Elector-Palatine has given a Jewel of the value of a thouſand Florins to the Chevalier Walpole, for his ſignal Service in poſting himſelf ſo conveniently on the Paſſages on the Rhine, that the Enemy which ſeized the Grand Maſter fell into his Hands, and loſt all the Booty with which they were returning to their Camp. To Morrow Te Deum will be ſung in the Church of the Teutonick Order, for the Deliverance of the Grand Maſter. The Deputies of the Circle of the Upper Rhine are aſſembled in this Place, and the Count de Rechteren has preſented to them a Memorial, wherein he has laid before them the abſolute Neceſſity that the Circles of Swabia, Franconia, and the Electorates of the Rhine ſhould enter into a more ſtrict Alliance for their common Safety, and that they ſhould hold a continual Seſſion by their Deputies, either at this Place, or Heilbron. We hear that his Electoral Highneſs is expected every Day at the Imperial Army, which lyes at Muhlberg. It is ſaid, the Elector has ſent Orders to General Thungen, who commands in chief in the Abſence of his Highneſs, that all things may be in a readineſs for the Execution of ſome important Deſign upon his Arrival. Prince Alexander of Wirtemberg, who commands at Landau, lately detached a conſiderable Party into the Enemy's Country, who have defeated a Body of the French, and thrown down ſeveral Redoubts on the Lines of Lauter. At the ſame time Advices from the Enemy's Army ſay, that the Detachment of eleven Battalions and eighteen Squadrons which paſſed the Rhine near Altenheim, continued to Forage the Country, and to cut down the Corn, in order to ſend it into their own Magazines. They write from Bohemia, that the Daniſh Troops in Hungary were on their March towards Saxony.

Bruſſels, July 29. N. S. Letters from Madrid of the ninth Inſtant ſay, that the Duke of Anjou having made new Diſpoſitions for carrying on the War with Vigour, has demanded of the Clergy a Loan of five Millions, to enable him to put his Deſigns in Execution: The Deputies of the Clergy had that Affair in Deliberation, and ſeveral Prelates had already paid in large Sums out of their own Revenues. In order to ſupply the Want of ſuch Troops as are recalled into France, twenty two new Battalions are to be raiſed, each conſiſting of five hundred and fifty Men; at the ſame time it is thought fit to add ten Men to each Company, which is already in the Pay and Service of the Court of Madrid. They write, that theſe Levies are very far advanced, and that ſeveral other Regiments are to be raiſed in Navarre, Biſcay and Galicia; inſomuch that it is reported the Duke of Anjou will have in his Service next Campaign forty five thouſand Spaniards, and fourteen thouſand French as Auxiliary Troops. The Count of Puebla, after having lately ſuccoured the Caſtle of Venaſca with a Detachment of five thouſand of the Confederate Forces, made himſelf Maſter of ſeveral Neighbouring Poſts, and returned to Catalonia. The Count de Bezons was thereupon obliged to detach four thouſand Men towards Monçon, to cover Arragon on that ſide. The Marquis de Bay has abandoned the Blockade of Olivença, and both Armies have marched into Quarters of Refreſhment. A late Account, wherein it was ſaid that the Spaniards had defeated two Battalions of the Portugueze, is contradicted by our laſt Advices: Theſe add alſo, that the Portugueze had penetrated as far as Brozas, and obliged the Country to pay Contributions.

Falmouth, July 23. On the twentieth in the Evening arrived the Diligence Packet, Capt. Hooper Commander, in eighteen Days from Lisbon, who reports, that he left there the Turkey Fleet with nine ſail of Britiſh Frigots; and that five Sail of Dutch Men of War, with about forty Sail of Tranſports with Soldiers, and Merchant-ſhips, were going in as he came out.

Plimouth, July 24. On the twentieth came in Her Majeſty's Ships the Deptford, Kent, Plimouth and Sunderland; and on the twenty firſt the Exeter and Winchelſea, with eleven Tranſports, and ſeveral outward-bound Ships and Coaſters. The next Day arrived a Dane bound for Lisbon. This Day came in a Dane with Deals for a Market, and a Swede for St. Ubes. Sailed a Dutch Privateer to Cruiſe, and a Dutch Guiney Man for Holland.

Dartmouth, July 24. This Day came in here a Dane from Dunkirk in Ballaſt, bound for St. Martins; the Maſter reports, that the Soldiers are in great Miſery for want of Bread. There is now a great Fleet of Ships ſeen off Torbay, ſtanding to the Weſtward, which is ſuppoſed to be the Fleet from Portſmouth.

Yarmouth, July 25. On the twenty third divers loaden Colliers arrived here from Newcaſtle, and yeſterday came in ſeveral others under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ship the Fox, who are paſſed through to the Southward, but the

Convoy